ONE VERSION OF COLOURING

Bf-109F fighter entered serial production in 1940. The aircraft was built in several different modifications (F1-F7) and its major difference was the armament. The successful combination of speed, maneuverability and armament made this aircraft a powerful adversary of any aircraft of that time. In total 2300 aircrafts were built in various modifications.

The model is executed on technology short run and is intended only for experienced modelers.
