Bf-109F fighter entered serial production in 1940. The aircraft was built in several different modifications (F1-F6) and its major difference was the armament. The successful combination of speed, maneuverability and armament made this aircraft a powerful adversary of any aircraft of that time. In total 2300 aircrafts were built in various modifications.

Серийное производство истребителя Bf-109F началось в 1940 г. Было создано несколько модификаций самолета (F1-F6) различавшихся, в основном, вооружением. Удачное сочетание скоростных характеристик, маневренности и вооружения делало его опасным противником для любых самолетов того времени. Всего было построено 2300 самолетов разных модификаций.

The model is executed on technology short run and is intended only for experienced modelers
